Gian Luca Galletti Minister of the Environment

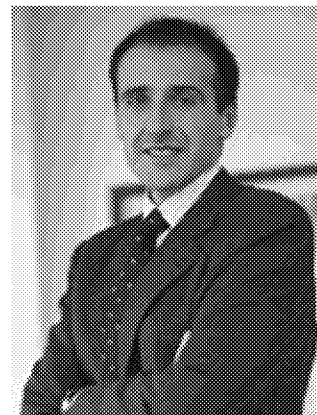

Gian Luca Galletti—born July 15, 1961, in Bologna—was appointed Minister of the Environment by Prime Minister Matteo Renzi on February 22, 2014. Since 2012, he has been the Unione di Centro (UdC – Centrist Union) leader in the Chamber of Deputies. He has a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Bologna and is married with four children.

Before being appointed Minister, he was undersecretary for the Ministry of Education and Research under the Letta government. From 1990 to 2009, Galletti was a city councilman in Bologna and from 1999 to 2004 he was a budget councilor for the city. From 2003 to 2005, he was a member of the High Ministerial Study Commission on Public Finance Reform. From 2005 to 2006, Galletti was a region councilman for Emilia-Romagna, before becoming a member of the national parliament in 2006. Although he has no experience in the environmental field, he has publicly stated that one of his priorities as Environment Minister will be dealing with hydrogeological instability in Italy.

Minister Galletti does not speak English.
